DENVER RAILROAD

Money Obtained to Successfully Build the Road.

MOSTLY EASTERN CAPITAL

Expect to Have the New Road Completed to the Hot Sulphur Springs by July 15 and Then Extended on to the Mormon Paradise of Lost Souls.

Denver, Col., March 31.—David H. Moffat has just returned from the east, related over the fact that he has been able to finance the Denver, Northwestern & Pacific railroad in a manner quite satisfactory to himself. He prepared the following statement for publication:

"I have made such satisfactory arrangements in the east as will enable me to go on with the Denver, Northwestern & Pacific railroad as I originally contemplated.

"My associates in the east are not connected with any of the trunk line railroads, so the stories heretofore published that the Union Pacific, Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, and Denver & Rio Grande respectively, had purchased the Denver, Northwestern & Pacific are without foundation in fact.

"I expect to let further contracts as soon as weather conditions will permit, and hope to reach Hot Sulphur Springs by July 15, and by January 1 should have my tracks in Routt county ready to receive shipments of coal. I have assurances that I shall have money as fast as the necessities of construction require to enable me to go on to Salt Lake.

THE RED SERIES IN RUSSIA.

What the Terrorists Have Done in the Past 30 Years.

New York, March 31.—An enumeration of the political murderous attempts in Russia in the last 30 years presents a sad interest in view of the present situation there. In the list following are not included the many executions of spies and traitors by the Nihilists or terrorists, as they are named today.

The red series began with the attempts against Alexander II made by Korskassoff, in 1866, and by Beresozki, in 1867, when the Muscovite autocrat was returning with Napoleon III from a military review in the Bois de Boulogne at Paris. Those attempts are the accidents of the monarchical profession, as said King Humbert of Italy, who was himself destined to be the victim of one of them. These attempts had nothing to do with the terrorist movement which was inaugurated in 1878 with the attempt of Vera Zazoultch, nicknamed the Russian Charlotte Corday. On February 5 of that year General Trepoff, chief of the St. Petersburg police, now administered by his son, was giving audience. A young woman advanced as if to tender a written petition. She drew a small revolver, fired at the general, and wounded him grievously. Vera Zazoultch was tried and acquitted by a jury, a fact which created a deep impression on all classes in Russia.

A few days afterward came an attempt at Kieff, in full daylight, by Asinsky against Prosecutor Kolliarawsky. The murderer succeeded in getting away. On May 25, 1878, also at Kieff, in one of the most crowded streets and near a police station, the captain of gendarmes was killed, and the assassin could not be discovered. On August 16, 1878, at St. Petersburg, General Mezentzoff, chief of the gendarmes corps and of the Third section, or political police bureau, was killed. A few days before he had received a note containing his death sentence.

On the night of February 21, 1879, at Kharkoff, Prince Kropotkin, brother of the famous anarchist, was murdered, while leaving a ballroom, by a masked man, who could not be arrested. On March 7, at Odessa, the corpse of Knoop, colonel of gendarmes, was found in his home with a placard on his breast bearing these words: "By order of the revolutionary executive committee: the same will be done, and must be done, to all tyrants and their accomplices." On April 19, at Archangel, the chief of police, Pietrowsky, was stabbed in his own house. To the handle of the poniard, which was left in the wound, was attached a piece of paper similar to the one above mentioned. On April 14 Solovieff fired five shots at the czar, who was not touched while the would-be murderer was disarmed and arrested. On November 30 and December 1 two unsuccessful attempts were made, one of them by the famous Hartman, to blow up the imperial train on the Loozovo-Sebastopol railroad.

On February 17, 1880, an explosion took place under the dining room of the winter palace, at the moment when Alexander II and his family were going there. Under the dining room was the guards hall, and the soldiers who were there were nearly all killed or maimed by the dynamite, which had been placed in the cellar. On March 1 occurred the attempt of Molodetsky upon Count Loris Melikoff, minister of the interior, and who enjoyed such an influence that he was called the "vice emperor."

CORPORATIONS FORMED.

Millions of Dollars Invested in New Corporations.

New York, March 31.—Corporations formed in the eastern states during the month of March with a capital of $1,000,000 or over, according to statistics compiled by the Journal of Commerce involve a total of $192,445,000.

This is the largest amount since October last, when the incorporations reached $215,500,000. In February the total was $98,600,000 and in March, 1904, $82,050,000. Many delayed enterprises have been brought forward during the month, accounting for the increase.

Cupid and Recruits.

"Cupid is one of the best recruiting officers that Uncle Sam has," confided one of the sergeants attached to the recruiting headquarters. "Back of nearly every enlistment there is a woman in the case. Lovers' quarrels chase a lot of fine lads into the service. Your romantic youth gravitates to the recruiting office after a serious break with his sweetheart as naturally as a duck takes to water. It seems to him the most fitting way in which to sacrifice himself when love's young dream is apparently dispelled. Way down in his heart he nursed the idea of making his earnest inamorata sad, and it's the army or navy, with the possibility of death in battle, for him. Again, other first-class material is recruited by the desire of young fellows to sport a uniform before their girls. In such cases Cupid does his recruiting through vanity. But in both ways he manages to fill up big gaps in the ranks of Uncle Sam's fighters."—Philadelphia Record.

Harper Recovering.

New York, March 31.—Dr. William R. Harper, president of the University of Chicago, who has been recuperating at Lakewood, N. J., from the effects of an operation, has surprised his physicians by so far recovering that he will be able to start for Chicago in a few days. Dr. Harper will leave Lakewood Saturday for New York. Here he will remain three days to undergo X-ray treatment and will then proceed to Chicago. Dr. Frank S. Billings says his patient is wonderfully improved. He will accompany him home.

Corbett Vs. Sullivan.

Baltimore, March 31.—Young Corbett and Kid Sullivan fought 10 rounds to a draw tonight. Corbett claimed a foul in the second round. Referee O'Hara refused to allow it, but gave the Denver boy five minutes in which to recuperate.

Woman Has Better Time.

"Who has the best time—a man or a woman?" Here is a question put forward by the Grand Magazine. I have not as yet had an opportunity of reading the discussion, but that shall not prevent me from joining in it, says a writer in London Sketch. I will give you six reasons therefore why a woman—an average woman—always has had and always will have a better time than a man:

1. Because she is more easily pleased.
2. Because she expects less than a man, but generally manages to get more.
3. Because she can always make a man do what she wants.
4. Because she never does anything she doesn't want to do.
5. Because she is less sensitive.
6. Because she can cry without feeling pain.

I hasten to add that all these remarks are based upon the idle gossip of the profoundly ignorant.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpelide Is In Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vixens may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpelide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpelide stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpelide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Sure Relief for Women.

No. 18 Central Ave. HOPE SPRING, ARK., April 20, 1905.

Eighteen months ago I was so completely run down that my body ached from head to foot. My back seemed to break in two and I suffered intense pain in the lower abdomen. I could not afford to lay off and take a rest, and no medicine helped me any.

A friend told me how much Wine of Cardui built her up and advised me by all means to take it. The day I took the first dose the recovery of my health began. It was nearly three months before I was entirely cured, but at the end of that time I was in better health than I had been for seven years.

I look on Wine of Cardui as the most blessed medicine that a woman could possibly take when she feels sick and tired of life.

Anna Nelson
ORATOR, WEDNESDAY CHATELAINA CLUB.

WINE of CARDUI

Mrs. Nelson describes the condition of thousands of women. That condition comes by slow stages. Usually the important function of menstruation is at first slightly irregular. Then comes the painful periods. Bearing-down pains and ovarian inflammation follow. Finally the nervous system gives way and the whole system has become affected and the pains rack the body from head to foot.

Wine of Cardui is a menstrual regulator of established reputation. No woman who takes it suffers as Mrs. Nelson suffered. It gives speedy and complete relief from the torturing menstrual agonies which are making so many women invalids today. Do not let yourself come to the pitiable condition Mrs. Nelson describes.

Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today and begin treatment immediately.
